

Now What?

A workshop on the transition to college for students with IEPs and 504s

Designed for parents/caregivers and students with IEPs and 504 Plans

Hosted by SOMSD Department of Special Services and South Orange/Maplewood Special Education Parent Advisory Committee

Wednesday, November 16, 7:00pm - 8:30pm

Columbia High School Auditorium
(enter school through front entrance)

Presented by Mr. Matthew Endlich, Transition Coordinator
Columbia High School

Please register for the workshop HERE by November 15th

Masking will follow guidelines for gatherings as per the school and/or district at the time of the event

Presentation is roughly one hour with time for discussion and questions

PLUS- Resource materials to help with planning and decision-making, self-advocacy for adolescents and young adults, choosing the right college, and more.

Please email Matthew Endlich with any questions at mendlich@somsd.k12.nj.us

For more information about the Special Education Parent Advisory Committee, visit sepacsoma.org and follow SEPAC SOMA on Facebook and Instagram.

The SOMA Special Education Community Facebook group is another helpful local resource.